

Feb. 15, 1981

Dear Honey,

Thank you so much for your nice letter, which I really did appreciate. I hope your job interview proved to be a success.

I am very sad this morning because yesterday morning John Rude came in to tell me that his father passed away at St. Jos. Hospital yesterday morning. It was a great shock, for Dwight had come over on Thursday for tests which didn't locate the trouble, and when John and his mother got here, it was too late.

Gertrude will be up sometime today, so I am trying to get a few